For Sunday Football

Punch to Sport.

By JOHN A. DUGAN.

Sandiot amateur sport was handed a knock-out punch yeaterday when Justice Robb, of the District Court of Appeals, handed down a decision which reversed the previous ruling of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, deciaring baseball and all other athletic games to be legal on Sunday, Amateur, Semi-professional, and professional athletics are now illegal in the District of Columbia. With this staggering blow to Sunday sport confronting him, Manager Joseph Oliveri, of the Vigilant football team, who has been booking games at Andrews Fagk, Fisteenth and H streets northeast, immediately consulted his, attorners.

the for Breviers yesterday in The Washing to Herald Printers' Duckpin League.

Capt. Anderson's outfit went through the sames in "big league" style, captaring each one by a good margin. In the opening fray the Breviers landed the long end of the score by twenty-nine pins, with Cahoon leading the field with a 161 game. The scores were 534 to 565.

With three players topping the pins over the century mark the Breviers pushed right ahead and landed the second context by twenty-one pins, the scores being 535 to 534. In this contest Switzer, the anchor man, lead the field with a 167 score. In the final game, who spilled 116 pins, the Bresiers, while the Nonparells secured 64. Balimore, Md., Nov. &—Seven brilliant races greated the large crowd of society folk yesterday at the Pimlico track. The folk yesterday at the Pimlico track. The to opening event on the card. a two-year-old race, open to filles and geldings, was captured by Between Us after being given a beautiful ride by Ambrose. He Will, with McCahey up, had enough left after a drive down the stretch, to beat Amanus to the wire for place.

The Rennur Handicap, the feature event, was open to three-year-olds and upward, and Butwell brought Thornhill first to the wire after one of the best rides ever seen on the Rillico track. Montressor finished second and Pardner third. The summary:

This fact was clearly established to day when the moguls of Ben Johnson's organization assembled in this city for their annual fall meeting. The Celeval League was discussed for possibly half an hour while the owners were in session, and they went on record as declaring themselves adverse to the recognition of a third league.

Every club in the American League was represented at the meeting, and every representative was willing to state that there would be no recognition of the Federal League was represented at the meeting. The federal League was represented at the meeting and every represented at the meeting and every such that the game, and this will add both a greater defensive and offensive strength to the Western High state when the moguls of game in the fact was clarity up and the made in the federal League was discussed for possibly half an hour while the owners were in seasion, and they went on record as cup and the pr against Carolina A. & M. here on Saturd day. Coach Exendine put his Georgetown players through a fierce scrimmage which lasted until after sundown.

The scrubs were given Carolina's plays, and were easily checked. On the other hand, the varsity ripped things up in a savage manner, scoring touchdown after touchdown.

The scrubs during the past few days have developed two men who are bound to be of great service to Georgetown to before they graduate from college. Fitzgerald at tackle and Daly at guard are the men. The former came with a big reputation as a full back, but seems to have found his natural position in the rush line.

For tomorrow's game Pauxtis and Cusack, the ends who starred against West Virginia last week, will probably see the game from the side lines. Cronin and Corcoran have taken their places.

Pauxtis is also in poor shape physically, but may be called upon to go in for Curcoran if necessary.
